

*National Institute on Aging
Intramural Research Program*

2014 Summer Student Seminar Series

(Brown Bag Lunch)

SEMINAR PRESENTER	DATE OF SEMINAR	LOCATION BRC	TIME
"ALS Genetics" Alan Renton, Ph.D., Postdoctoral IRTA Fellow Laboratory of Neurogenetics	June 9	Room 3C227	12:00 - 1:00 p.m.
"Therapeutic Antibodies: B cells to the Rescue" Robert Maul, Ph.D. Staff Scientist Laboratory of Molecular Biology and Immunology	June 16	Room 3C227	12:00 - 1:00 p.m.
"Offenders and Defenders of the Genome: DNA repair in Aging-Related Diseases" Jennifer Illuzzi Ph.D. Postdoctoral IRTA Fellow Laboratory of Molecular Gerontology	June 23	Room 3C227	12:00 - 1:00 p.m.
"Monkey in the middle: The Unique Value of Primate Models in Translational Aging Research" Julie Mattison, Ph.D., Staff Scientist Translational Gerontology Branch	June 30	Room 3C227	12:00 - 1:00 p.m.
"How To Create A Dynamic Poster" Michael Rouse, Ph.D. Postdoctoral IRTA Fellow Laboratory of Clinical Investigation	July 7	Room 3C227	12:00 - 1:00 p.m.
"Diabetes in Older Adults" Chia Chee, M.D., Staff Scientist Translational Gerontology Branch	July 14	Room 3C227	12:00 - 1:00 p.m.
"Women in Science Tell their Stories" There will be a panel sharing their experiences as women in science	July 21	Room 3C227	12:00 – 1:00 p.m.
"Why Does Your Heart Beat?" Edward Lakatta, M.D., Chief Laboratory of Cardiovascular Science	July 28	Room 3C227	12:00 - 1:00 p.m.